

Week Beginning: Monday 8th January 2018 This Week's Theme: My Family and School  We will be: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Learning about the different jobs our family members do, including jobs that have to be done at home • Listening to guest speakers and asking questions about the things we see and hear • Finding about different jobs that have to be done in school • Listening to stories about different families and making connections with our own experiences • Recognising numbers 1 to 10 and counting objects out from a larger group • Writing words using our phonic skills and learning the last set of sounds in set one 	Week Beginning: Monday 15th January 2018 This Week's Theme: Superheroes In Brentford We will be: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Finding out about the different jobs that are done in Brentford everyday including the work done by post people, bus drivers and shop workers • Visiting different shops and local work places including the train station, canal and Morrisons • Thinking about what jobs there might be in the future and identifying what jobs they would like to do • Making maps and brochures about different jobs and work places • Reading a selection of stories and making lists • Selecting the correct numeral to match a total and practice number formation 	Week Beginning: Monday 22nd January 2018 This Week's Theme: Nurses and Doctors  We will be: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Finding out about the work done by Doctors and Nurses and talking about the different work they do • Reading a selection of stories about going to the doctors including Topsy and Tim • Listening to a guest speaker and finding out the equipment they use and the role they have in helping people • Identifying different tools and equipment used at the doctor's surgery and the hospital and making cards • Recalling past experiences and making posters and labels • Counting groups of objects to 10 and beyond
Week Beginning: Monday 29th January 2018 This Week's Theme: Police  We will be: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Finding out about the different jobs done by the Police • Making wanted posters and missing posters and thinking about extending our sentences • Reading a selection of stories about the police and how they help people • Finding out about the equipment used by the Police and having a visit from a police dog and handler • Finishing set one of the phonics sounds and practicing reading and writing using our phonics skills • Ordering two or more objects by height and length 	Week Beginning: Monday 5th February 2018 This Week's Theme: Fire Fighters  We will be: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Finding out about the different equipment and tools used by Fire Fighters and thinking about how they help people • Making our own fire engines and thinking about how we could improve them • Having a visit from the fire service and talking to them about their jobs • Talking about fire safety and how we can stay safe in the event of an emergency • Ordering objects by weight and capacity and using appropriate language 	Dates for your Diary <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Monday 15th January – Height and Weight Checks • Thursday 18th January – Curriculum Enrichment Day • Monday 22nd January – St Paul's Week • Thursday 25th January – Year Two to lead the St Paul's Service in the Church at 10am – all welcome • Thursday 1st February – Parents Workshop on Internet Safety • Tuesday 6th February – Internet Safety Day • Friday 9th February – INSET Day – School Closed to pupils • Monday 12th February – Half Term – School Closed

On Going Learning:  Using full sentences when we talk to familiar adults,  Saying please and thank you when we ask for things,  Talking about our likes and interests and giving reasons for our choices and ideas,  Talking about our own experiences at home and when out and about,  Playing sensibly with our friends and extending our play based on each others ideas